fit

These three projects align with the core responsibilities of Blacksmith's Developer Marketer position:
Developer Audience Messaging, Go-to-Market Strategies, and Content Operations.

Developer Audience Messaging | Creator of Sentry's Dogfooding Chronicles, a syndicated content series turning internal product usage into external thought leadership. Impact: 25+ blog posts generating a total of ~145k site visits, $100K quarterly ARR, and 4+ year publishing tail.

Go-to-Market Strategies | Led content for Sentry's Performance Monitoring rollout: defining category claim, creating tagline ("See Slow Faster"), writing thought leadership content, planning social media calendar and building out product pages. Impact: $1.8m in attributed pipeline.

experience

fractional content marketer

06/24 - present

clients (industry) | DroneDeploy, Reducto, Cincoro Tequila, BindID, Text, Chronosphere
outputs | content roadmaps, AEO/GEO, video production, white papers, agentic content, campaign strategies

Developer Audience Messaging | Founder messaging for Reducto's checkbox detection release: developed core brand insights, pitched activation concepts, and ghostwrote Linkedin thought leadership pieces.

Go-to-Market Strategies | Wrote brand manifesto + content roadmap for Michael Jordan-backed Cincoro Tequila during early-stage launch phase. Impact: grew social following from 0 -91k, leading to 1.5m bottles sold in first year.

Content Operations | Owned content production for DroneDeploy's Safety AI launch — tagline (Your AI in the Sky), video, social, blogs — converting crews and site owners to trade their pencils and tape measures for drones and reality capture software. Impact: $450K in Stage 2 pipeline; 70% lift in organic traffic.

senior copywriter, Symphony Studio

industry | advertising (B2B + employer branding)
outputs | website copy, messaging frameworks, content architecture, full-funnel ABM campaigns, value proposition messaging

Go-to-Market Strategies | Led brand strategy + content production for HP Presence's release, overseeing a team of writers that produced a series of white papers defining the role of the office coming out of the pandemic for CISOs and ITDMs. Impact: 2.3k form signups leading to $680K in content-attributed closed-won deals.

Content Operations | Lead writer for Airbnb's post-pandemic career site — writing core messaging, establishing IA/content hierarchy, and building out landing pages across candidate profiles, with a specific emphasis on software engineers + apprenticeships. Impact: 72% increase in applications in first quarter post-launch.

technical content strategist, Sentry

02/20 - 07/22

industry | B2B SaaS (DevOps)
outputs | customer stories, sales enablement content, op-eds, executive messaging, organic social, press releases,

Developer Audience Messaging | Creator of Sentry's Dogfooding Chronicles, a syndicated content series turning internal product usage into external thought leadership. Impact: 25+ blog posts generating a total of ~145k site visits; 4+ year publishing tail.

Go-to-Market Strategies | Led content for Sentry's Performance Monitoring rollout: defining category claim, creating tagline ("See Slow Faster"), writing thought leadership content, planning social media calendar and building out product pages. Impact: $1.8m in attributed pipeline.

Content Operations | Set Sentry's editorial vision, built content production infrastructure, and managed editorial calendar through a Git-based editorial process that cut ship time from weeks to days. Impact: contributed to Sentry's Series B→C growth ($45M→$90M ARR).

content strategist, Ceros

03/17 - 11/19

industry | SaaS/ (content creation)
outputs | experiential content, landing pages, gated content, creative briefs, content repurposing, sales enablement content

Go-to-Market Strategies | Produced – and was in front of camera for – Ceros's first webinar on content strategy centered around product marketing shifting from content written from a paper perspective (big blocks of copy) to a layered, mobile-first digital perspective.

Content Operations | Built out content processes, filmed webinars, and wrote creative briefs for a digital content creation pipeline churning 300+ projects a year.
